An application form can be found on the online database:

<https://jobs.justice.ie/website/jobs/jobs.nsf/page/index-en>

Deadline for Applications

Applications must be submitted online no later than 3pm on Thursday, 28th of September 2023.

The onus is on applicants to ensure that they have correctly submitted their applications. Applicants must complete and submit one application only.

Application Forms must be submitted using Microsoft Word only. Applications using another programme, such as '.pdf', will not be accepted.

Human Resources experience is that some applicants leave submitting their application until the last day or indeed the last few minutes before a competition deadline. This invariably leads to a number of applications being received late. Applicants are strongly advised to submit their applications as early as possible to avoid any difficulties with applying in time. In the interest of fairness to all applicants, late applications will not be accepted in any circumstances. This policy is strictly applied.

The Application Form

The Application Form must be typed. There are five sections, as follows:

- Section A – Educational qualifications and career history
- Section B – Specific examples from your career to date which you feel demonstrates your suitability to the role of Archivist Grade III.
- Section C - Personal Statement - Outline why you wish to be considered for this post and why you believe your skills and experience would be relevant to the role of Archivist Grade III.
- Section D – Reasonable accommodation

- Section E - Declaration

The Selection Process

The selection process will take the form of an interview, the overall focus of which will be to assess each candidate on the basis of their career and experience to date in terms of the requirements/desirable competencies to successfully undertake the job.

While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, the Department of Justice may decide that a smaller number will be called to the next stage of the selection process. In this respect, the Department of Justice provide for the employment of a shortlisting process to select a group who, based on an examination of the application forms, appear to be the most suitable for the position. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable or incapable of undertaking the job, rather that there are some candidates, who based on their application, appear to be better qualified and / or have more relevant experience.

A board will examine the application forms against agreed shortlisting criteria based on the requirements of the position. The shortlisting criteria may include both the essential and desirable criteria specified for the position. It is therefore in your own interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/ experience in your application.

It is anticipated that competitive interviews will be held as soon as possible after the closing date for receipt of applications. The onus is on candidates to make themselves available for interview at the scheduled time. While the interview will centre around the skills and competencies set out below candidates should note that the interview will be semi-structured in nature.

Information from Sections A, B & C of the application form will be considered during the interviews. The competencies set out below will be used by the interview board to assess candidates and form the panel.

Canvassing

Applicants should note that canvassing by or on behalf of an applicant will disqualify the applicant and will result in their exclusion from the appointment process.

Confidentiality

Subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 2014 applications will be treated in strict confidence.

Security Clearance

You will be required to complete and return a Garda eVetting form should you come under consideration for appointment. This form will be forwarded to An Garda Síochána for security checks on all Irish and Northern Irish addresses at which you resided. However should your application for the competition be unsuccessful this form will be destroyed by the Department of Justice.

If you have resided / studied in countries outside of the Republic of Ireland for a period of 6 months or more, it is mandatory for you to furnish a Police Clearance Certificate from those countries stating that you have no convictions recorded against you while residing there. You will need to provide a separate Police Clearance Certificate for each country you have resided in. Clearance must be dated after the date you left the country. It is YOUR responsibility to seek security clearances in a timely fashion as they can take some time. You cannot be appointed without this information being provided and being in order.

Other important information

The Department of Justice will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred by candidates.

The admission of a person to a campaign, or invitation to attend an interview, is not to be taken as implying that the Department of Justice are satisfied that such person fulfils the requirements of the competition or is not disqualified by law from holding the position and does not carry a guarantee that your application will receive further consideration. It is important, therefore, for you to note that the onus is on you to ensure that you meet the eligibility requirements for the competition before attending for interview.

If you do not meet these essential entry requirements but nevertheless attend for interview you will be putting yourself to unnecessary expense.

Should the person recommended for appointment decline, or having accepted it, relinquish it or if an additional vacancy arises the Board may, at its discretion, select and recommend another person for appointment on the results of this selection process.

A panel may be formed from which future vacancies may be filled from this campaign.

Once a candidate has accepted an offer of appointment their name will be removed from the panel and no further offers of appointment will be made.

Should similar type vacancies arise elsewhere in the Civil Service candidates may be drawn from this competition.

Requests for Feedback

Feedback will be provided to candidates in relation to the selection process if requested is available on request. There are no specific timeframes set for the provision of feedback.

Please note that the Review Process as set out in the Code of Practice is a separate process with specified timeframes that must be observed. Receipt of feedback is not required to invoke a review. It is not necessary for a candidate to compile a detailed case prior to invoking the review mechanism.

The timeframe set out in the CPSA Code cannot be extended for any reason including the provision of feedback.
